Burglars Interrupted in the Robbery of the Dibble Home Last Night

Returning from a pleasant evening spent in a local restaurant, finding two burglars looting their home, and in few moments see the crooks beat a limity retreat through a near-by alley. was the Christmas Eve experience of Neighborhood House was everybody's Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Dibble of 1434 tforth Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Debter had open the early past of the evening down town, and returned to their home at $145 o'clock last night. Finding that hi key failed to open the front door, Mr. Dibble made p hasty examination of the premises and found that two burplace were at work in the house. Mrs. Dibble ran to a neighboring telephone standing guard. The theives, how Daniel Willard during last Monday's of the return of the occupants of the house, made a histy getaway b means of the back door before Dibble sould do anything to be west their flight.

tince inside the house it was found that the crooks had carried off sev Antonio, the other barge which broke eral gold rings and z silver mest handbag belonging to Mrs. Dibble They had evidently gained an e trance to the house to using a ske eton sey in the front door lock. The had closed the front door and propchair against it to prevent ser of the house from getting that war They had also taken arralars and completely ransacked the se, and had emitted the content for valuables.
